DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of group I, claims 1-20, in Paper No. 6 is acknowledged. A complete reply to this action should include a cancellation of nonelected claims 21-26.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, claim 11, and claim 19, reference to "a spirally shaped cavity disposed between said inner and outer sleeves" is not fully understood in the context of the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brandon et al., US Patent 3,690,639. A laminated bushing is provided with a inner sleeve 12, and outer sleeve 13 with groove 13a. A spirally shaped cavity is provided between the inner and outer sleeves and has resilient material 15 therein. The sleeves are formed from a metal sheet as claimed. The resilient material is adhered to and compressed by the metal sheet.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 11 and 16-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brandon et al. in view of Hinks, US Patent 2,900,182. Brandon teaches the claimed invention except for the bearing arrangement being in the environment of a vehicle suspension. Hink does teach a similar bearing arrangement for use in a wide range of mechanical applications, including automobile suspension systems. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made for one skilled in the art to have included in the design of Brandon such a modification, as taught in Hink, for the purpose of gaining the benefits of the bushing design in the environment of a vehicle suspension system.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brandon et al. Brandon discloses the claimed invention except for the claimed material of vulcanized rubber. It is known in the art to use such materials to achieve a desired resilient effect, as evidenced by Velazquez, US Patent 5,332,255 (see column 4, line 65). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the device in this way, as evidenced by Velazquez, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416. See also Ballas Liquidating Co. v. Allied industries of Kansas, Inc. (DC Kans) 205 USPQ 331.

Such a modification is not critical to the design and would have produced no unexpected results.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 7-10 and 12-15 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Claims 19 and 20 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
